The President and his party serve the in terests of Europe; we will support the interests of America .- Republican Platform,

Two West Virginia Democrats on the Last Saturday night a splendid oppor tunity presented itself to Judge Fleming and Senator Kenna. The people of Wheeling, irrespective of party, turned out to hear them on the issues of the day. If they and their party are on the right side of those issues they had a splendid chance to demonstrate that fact, and success in such an undertaking would have won their party votes.

These eminent exponents of Democratic doctrine missed their opportunity, for instead of giving much attention to the issues of the day they plunged with bitterness into the issues of a day that is dead and gone. Following in the line of the platform of the Huntington convention, which platform Senator Kenna reported, they exerted themselves to fan into flame the embers of passions and prejudices which once arrayed neighbor McKemport News

They must have devoted themselves so largely to the dead issues because the so largely to the dead issues because the living issues are full of peril to their political organization. This is the only reasonable explanation, and it shows once more the weakness of a cause which cannot meet the living men of to-day on the living issues of to-day.

Should be Ashamed.

If there is a paper within the bounds of the Union so utterly reckless and distinct in its political methods as the Wheeling Register, it ought to be sought out and exhibited in a dine museum. It has come to that point when nobody believes anything that appears in the Register, and its managers should be Ashamed.

A Misleading Argument.

Judge Fleming is under the misapprehension that a tariff is Protective or not according as the tariff rates are high or low. He thinks it clear that a 42 per cent tariff can bear none of the marks of The tariff levied by Great Britain is 69 per cent on her imports. Of course Judge Fleming is aware that the British tariff is levied for revenue and that Great Britain is a Free Trade country. The average percentage of the tariff does not determine the measure of Protection. That question is determined by the principle upon which duties are levied, and by the rate of duty on each commodity. For example, the average rate of duty on American imports might be 100 per cent, and with wool on the free list the wool-grower would have no Protection. The point is too clear to require elabora-

The False and the Real. To Judge Fleming and Senator Kenna, Gentlemen-The people of West Virginia are not bothering themselves about that which happened a quarter of a century ago. Their concern is for the preent and the future, for themselves, their children and their children's children. They cannot see that you compensate them for free wool, free lumber, free salt and lower wages all along the line by reminding them that there was a war and that the effects of the war did not completely disappear after the armed conflict was over.

The people of the State are threatened by your party, with an industrial con-flict with all the toilers of the world, and you seek to obscure the issue by unfolding a panorama of a war that was over before hundreds of thousands of those who will vote this year were born. It won't do, gentlemen, it won't do.

THE New York Sun is Democratic but not altogether blind. It rises to remark of General Harrison: "He can be trusted not to explode. He is no trotter, but a not to explode. He is no trotter, but a staid family horse, who will not shy at this shadow or make for the woods at the bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kine. Send to C. H. Patriotic Students.

Special Correspondence of the Intiligence.

Morgantows, W. Va., Oct. 7.—The Republican students of the West Virginia University met at the Court House and formed an organization on the evening of the 5th, electing Cadet S. F. Reed, President, and Sergeant G. G. Heiner, Secretary. The object of the organization was to arrange for the reception of General Golf on his arrival in Morgantown on the 9th.

The cadets will appear in the procession in full uniform. Captain Louis A. Lindemuth, of Wheeling, will be master of ceremonies. Every arrangement is being made for an immense occasion and it is thought that Morgantowa will be priceless.—A. G. Chase, M. D., Millwood, Pairmont West Profision.

Does anybody suppose that the details of the Beverly meeting on Monday between General Goff and Judge Fleming, Governor Wilson et al., could have been forwarded to Wheeling in time to appear in the Register of Wednesday? Does any one acquainted with the three gentlemen believe that either Windy Wilson or Judge Fleming, or both combined, can successfully debate the issues of the present campaign with General Goff? It has been but a few days since the Democratic Executive Committee, headed by Mr. Riley, "who runs the campaign," and manipulated by Senator Fankhere, who bosses the job, publicly announced that Judge Fleming could not be permitted to meet General Goff in joint debate, for the reason that he is not posted on the questions at issue. When this is remembered, the assinine jests of the Register will be better understood and appreciated.

A Voice from "the Interior."

If all the Wheeling Register's political information is of a character similar to its report of the meetings of Gen. Golf with "Windy" Wilson at Phillippi and Beverly, we sincerely pityl its deluded and deeeived patrons and readers. We speak wherof we know when we assure our readers that the Register's reports were both grossly unfair and untruthful. Gov. Wilson is as incapable of discussing the issues of this campagn with Gen. Golf as a chattering monkey would be, and all the talk about Gen. Golf being "sat upon," "squelched," "flattened out," "ripped up," &c., is laughably ridiculous to people who know both men, and especially so those who heard the "discussion." We are perfectly willing to trust the fruits of the Phillippi and Beverly meetings with the voters who If all the Wheeling Register's political prejudices which once arrayed neighbor against neighbor as in war time, for they dealt with questions which grew out of that unhappy episode in American history.

No man of either of the great political parties can in a single speech cover the whole ground of the questions of to-day. Why did these talented champions of Democracy choose to waste so much of their time on questions which not a man in their andience cared a fig about except, if he thought of them at all, to wish them forever buried?

McKexspert News.

For several years W. R. Thomas has had charge of the Demonter postoffice, which he attended to in connection with his store. He has just completed negotiations for the sale of the latter, however, and has also received notice from the Postoffice Department at Washington stating that his resignation had been favorably received. As soon as Mr. Thomas gets his business affairs settled he will leave for the wilds of West Virginia to join the colony there from this city, and of which he was one of the prime movers. He has purchased several acres of valuable timber land in that State and will embark in the lumber business.

NEWBURG, W. VA., Oct. 6 .- A large much love.

Is There an "Inside" Third Party Understanding?

Prohibition Chairman Dave D. Johnson says that his friends don't care whom they hurt, Democrat or Republican. This is very far from the common understanding of the case. There is reason to believe that the Prohibitionists in the Third Party movement are particularly desirous of hitting the Republican party on the head now as they were in 1884.

There is even reason to suspect that some of the men on the Prohibition ticket in this State do not themselves in the do vote that ticket. The plan seems
